OAT SMUT DEMONSTRATION.

County Agent Carrigan Reports Good Progress in Work.

Small but interesting meetings have been held at several oat smut field demonstration plots during the week. These meetings have been in charge of County Agent Carrigan to show the farmers the results of treating the oat seed to prevent smut. The county agent reports an abundance of smut in the fields sown to untreated seed while in the field sown to treated seed the smut is practically cleaned out. In one field he has found an average of 42 per cent. smut meaning that 42 out of every 100 heads of oats are lost. This loss might have been absolutely avoided if the seed had been treated at a cost of about seven cents per acre. The average smut in the fields thus far inspected amounts to 15 per cent. and will probably mean a six bushel loss per acre. This means a loss of about 100,000 bushels of oats in the county. By means of these meetings the farmers are coming to know of this loss and are unanimous in saying "I will treat my seed next year."

POTATO CROP A FAILURE.

On account of the extremely wet weather that obtained at the time of the planting season and afterward, the early potato crop in Vergennes and that section is almost a failure. In many cases the seed was washed out after planting and in some cases the seed rotted in the ground even after the third planting.

Reports from Lincoln and Starksboro, which are centers of the potato raising in that part of the State, show a similar condition, but in a lesser degree.

The statement is made by men who are well informed that potatoes in that section will command a price of $1 a bushel and a few prophecy that they will bring as high as $1.50 a bushel before winter.

CHURCH OF THE ASSUMPTION.

In preparation for the general communion next Sunday at St. Mary's church, confessions will be heard Saturday forenoon, afternoon and evening and also before the Masses on Sunday for those who cannot possibly come on Saturday. The senior and junior members of the Holy Name society, the members of Addison court, C. O. F., and the members of Father Daley council, K. of C., will receive Holy Communion in a body next Sunday. There will be a priest from St. Michael's College here to assist with the confessions Saturday and also with the services Sunday morning. The Masses will be at the usual hours: 8:30 and 10:30; and the Holy Hour will be observed at 7:30 Sunday evening.

JANE GREY IN "WAIFS."

Jane Grey and William Desmond, both popular favorites of the speaking stage, will be presented by Thomas H. Ince as co-stars in an original human interest drama from the pen of J. C. Hawks, at the opera house Tuesday, August 15.

"Waifs" is a pathetic story of a young clergyman's decline because of his inadvertent use of liquor. Beginning with the incident of his dismissal from the church, the story is replete with stirring situations, until through his contrition, and the influence exerted over him by a whole-hearted child of the underworld, he is restored to the ministry.

Miss Grey in "Waifs" plays the part of "Rags," a Bowery maid, whose love for the dejected clergyman results in his regeneration.

SUMMER SESSION CONCERT.

Pupils of Music School and Chorus to Take Part.

The pupils of the Music School, assisted by the chorus singers of the Summer Session and Professor H. P. Williamson de Visme will give the concert which is customarily held at the close of the Summer Session on Tuesday evening, August 15, in Music hall at eight o'clock. Heretofore this concert has been open to the public without charge. An invitation is cordially extended this year for all music lovers to attend. In view of the interest of the students of the Session in war relief work an admission of twenty-five cents will be charged this year, and the entire receipts will be turned over to Professor de Visme for the relief work in northern France. The students of the Summer Session patronized the benefit concert for the Vermont militia heartily, the music lovers of Middlebury will not fail to show their appreciation in return, both of good music and opportunity to do something for the destitute in our sister nation.
